The White House Wedding.

Washington, Nov. 5.—White House messengers were busy today distributing invitations to the wedding on November 25 of Miss Jessie Wilson and Francis Bowers Sayre. About four hundred invitations were sent out, approximately 250 of them being directed residents of Washington. The local invitations were delivered from the White House, while the others were mailed.

The invitation list necessarily is limited to the capacity of the east room, where the wedding will take place. The ambassadors and ministers in the diplomatic corps, members of the cabinet and supreme court of the United States and prominent officials constitute the greater part of the invitation list, though many personal friends of both the Wilson and Sayre families are coming from various parts of the country.

Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Inspired Famous Hymn.

"Jesus, Lover of My Soul," is a hymn around which many traditions and sacred associations cling. The story connected with its origin may be legendary, but it is no less beautiful. Its author, Charles Wesley, was sitting at his desk by an open window when a bird pursued by a hawk flew in. The bird was saved, for the hawk feared to follow it. The incident inspired Wesley to write his famous lines.

There Are Others.

In our adolescent inexperience we cherished the notion that hotel clerks and book store attaches were the most conspicuous of the unintelligents. Yesterday, however, a telegraph operator objected to our using "juxtopace" in a night letter. "We don't allow code words," said he. And for the life of us we couldn't think of a snappy comeback.

Cause of Insomnia.

Declare War on Colds.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance."

To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.

OLD HICKORY CHIPS

Short and Pithy Sayings on Subjects Past and Present.

Nothing like a warm waffle on a chilly morn.

Things do seem different when Colonel Roosevelt is gone.

We should feel a great deal surer of our high moral standards in this quarrel with Mexico if New York would keep more in the back-ground.

See what Sulzer got by trying to combine reform with Tammany.

Russia's discovery of new lands looks like an effort to make more work for Colonel Roosevelt.

Huerta is perfectly willing to hold an election any time provided he can keep a tight enough grip on it.

As a champion of political militancy William Sulzer drew a larger audience in New York than the one that heard Mrs. Parkheast.

"Wall street" finds it impossible to defeat the statesmanlike currency bill championed by a Democratic President and Congress, so it is trying to delay it as much as possible. The play for delay is the last card in a losing fight.

The Republican press is endeavoring to make the country believe that Europe is irritated at President Wilson's Mexican policy. England, France and Germany however, have just said:—"Woody, old boy," we will "back you up in your policy down there."

Walking out to be popular where there is such a delightful country with fine autumnal scenery to walk in as that around here.

The frost is now on all the pumpkins that have not been converted into pie.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has decided that drummers must not sell their samples. But that may not prevent them pawing them in a pinch.

A monument to General Braddock is to be erected in Pennsylvania. You remember who Braddock was don't you?

The power of impeachment seems to be vested in the President of Mexico, and not in the Congress.

Remember how you used to keep away from the sunshine last summer.

Trying to be good will occupy Mrs. Parkhurst's attention for some little time to come.

One of the great needs of the Huerta government is a reliable and efficient habes corpus system.

Echoes from the New York political arena seem to indicate that the Colonel failed to take his short and ugly with him.

It's easy enough for Mr. Bryan to urge universal prohibition but what has he got to quit?

You can't ring the gong of success by pushing a button.

The idea of any old codger classing the fall as the melancholy days.

A Night of Terror.
